SUNDAYS AFTER THE EPIPHANY

ASH WEDNESDAY

SUNDAYS IN LENT

February – 2024

*“Return to me with all your heart...
rend your hearts and not your clothing.”*
Joel 2:12 & 13

(From the First Lesson appointed for Ash Wednesday)

Dear friends,

It's a strange combination when Valentine's Day and Ash Wednesday fall on the same day. That's what confronts in this leap year of 2024. At first it might seem that receiving an ashen cross on our forehead as we will have opportunity to do on February 14th this year would be the opposite of the sentiments of love, love, love, so wonderfully and beautifully expressed on February 14th any other year. Yet when we think about it, the greatest love of all is the love that God has for us. God Is Love! There is no better demonstration of God's love for us than realizing our great need for God's grace and forgiveness and God's ultimate answer to our need. That ashen cross on our brow says it all. It reminds us of the great lengths that God goes to in order that we might be healed, redeemed, renewed and restored as beloved children of God. It is God's way to profoundly say “Happy Valentine's Day” to us as God declares loud and clear not only “won't you be mine?” but you already are mine!

During our Lenten Journey this year we will be engaging in a season of Lamentation in preparation for the celebration of the Resurrection of Our Lord – Easter Day. The schedule for this time of devotion and meditation is outlined elsewhere in this Newsletter. There is also further information from Sundays and Seasons, the worship resource that this series is taken from.

There is much to lament in our world today, not to mention the things in our own personal lives and living that cause us pain, hardship and struggle. We undertake this journey not for the sake of feeling sad or bad about the way things might be for us at any given time. Rather we follow the sound practice found throughout the words of Holy Scripture that help us to deal this side of heaven with difficult times and situations. To lament is to grieve. We grieve the loss of loved ones and many other things often. In our lament, by God's grace, we are led to God's grace and experience the power of resurrection in our lives and living.

There is no better way to prepare for the great joy of Easter Day than to acknowledge our grief and pain as we recognize our great need for lamentation, individually and collectively together. This isn't meant to be a downer by any means. Rather, in this journey together we will discover the true love and joy that is ours in the life, death and resurrection of Jesus Christ, God's Son, our Savior! The true and most beneficial lament is when God opens up our hearts to receive all the love and grace that God has instore for us here and now and in the blessed gift of eternal life to follow.

May our Lenten Journey together be a blessed time of reflection, meditation and growing in the faith of our baptism! See you in church and community!

Peace, Pastor Rich

News From Your Council

Nurture Board Notes

February is the month of love. Nurture is the epitome of love. As a congregation we love each other. As a congregation we nurture each other. And February has some loving events that we can all enjoy.

On February 11, we will celebrate Mardi Gras with a potluck brunch. There is a sign-up sheet in the narthex. Invite someone, share a favorite brunch food and/or drink (did someone say mimosas?) Let's have a delicious meal together before Lent begins.

Another favorite activity that is resuming soon is the Supper Club. After a long hiatus, Supper Club restarted last fall. What is Supper Club you ask? Groups of 16 people (couples or singles) take turns meeting once a month, hosting a dinner party for the others. Everyone contributes to the meal. Everyone who participated last fall had a great time. A sign-up sheet is in the narthex. If you have questions, contact me or Diane McShane.

Look for upcoming articles featuring your 2024 council members. They will be appearing in newsletters throughout the year.

The results of the Listening Sessions have been shared with the 2024 Council members. They will be reviewing them and incorporating them into plans for Holy Trinity in the upcoming year. We will keep you posted.

As always, thanks to all who contribute to hospitality and other Nurture activities throughout the year. You are the heart of Holy Trinity, sharing the love.

“Therefore, as we have opportunity, let us do good to all people, especially to those who belong to the family of believers.”

Worship & Music Board

The Worship & Music Board met on January 9th. Our top priority project is finding a permanent part-time church musician. We have had a couple responses to our Facebook posts, but none have followed through to an interview. We ask that the congregation pray that the Lord will provide the right person at the right time.

In the meantime I know we are all appreciating the wonderful music that Craig is providing. Our next steps are to place posters in area music stores and explore other means of reaching

Meet Your Council Members

This month we feature Judi Luken and Pam Burkey.

Judi Luken – Board of Worship

My husband and I spent most of our married life in the Chicago suburbs. Our children still live in Illinois and Southern Wisconsin. I have three sons and one daughter, six grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

When we moved to Daphne in the late summer of 2021 we were looking for a Lutheran Church with a full liturgical worship with Communion every Sunday and a warm and welcoming congregation. We found both at Holy Trinity and knew right away that this was the place we belonged. My husband, Eck, was diagnosed with cancer not long after we joined the church. During his illness we truly felt the support of Pastor Rich and Lorraine. Congregation members were very kind and offered numerous times to help. We truly felt blessed to be members of the church family.

And that feeling has continued this past year as I was able to become more involved in church activities. I would have felt lost if it had not been for my faith and my connection to Holy Trinity. I look forward to helping serve in whatever capacity I am able. It is a joy to be surrounded by such loving, caring people.

Pam Burkey – Board of Nurture

Moving to Daphne was my idea. I don't think Kevin was thrilled, but he agreed, with the understanding that we would look for and find a church family not just a church. I started my job in Mobile before Kevin moved, so I began scouting churches. Having been raised in the Lutheran Church, I naturally chose Holy Trinity to visit first. I came with Nicolas and immediately felt welcome. After Kevin arrived, we visited several different churches to give ourselves some choices. None of the other congregations came close to the level of friendliness we experienced at Holy Trinity. Our decision was made, and we became members.

For me, I felt that Holy Trinity was my church home when Pastor Rich asked me to be the narrator for the Passion. It reminded me of when I was ten years old and was chosen to be the narrator for the Sunday School presentation of the Christmas story. I really wanted to be an angel, but it turned out that the narrator had a lot of stage time, and my pretty Christmas dress wasn't hidden under a choir robe that was used as an angel costume.

I appreciate the way Holy Trinity makes itself available to organizations in the community. Musical Beginnings, ESILL, Boy Scouts, Path to Peace all have used our space to meet, practice and present events. This may not seem very important but being generous with our building is a great way to let people get to know us.

Feeling at home was what Kevin and I were looking for in a church. All the people at Holy Trinity are special to us. People throw around the words "church family", but Holy Trinity really does feel like a family. We believe in taking care of our church family the same way we take care of our family family.

I see great things ahead for Holy Trinity. There are a lot of ideas for the future and I am glad we will be a part of it.

The Church Mouse Journal

January 2024

Hello Everyone at Holy Trinity!!! Do you remember me, Harold the church mouse? I am back! Yep...I came back...actually, I came HOME. After a year of travel to visit family and friends, no place felt like Holy Trinity Lutheran Church. So, just after Christmas I snuck in one afternoon and oh my gosh it feels so right!

January was busy – It began with the baptism of Baby Taylor – oh my, she was so beautiful and perfect. Her whole family was just glowing on that special day. After the service came my favorite part – Hospitality I think it is called – I hung around the back until everyone left and was able to grab a bit of the cupcakes. I hope you were able to taste them because they were yummy!

That same Sunday I watched from a corner the new council members being introduced and installed. Man, you guys are so lucky – I remember some of the faces from before! How wonderful that people in this church love it so much they want to continue to serve. (I THINK one of them saw me, the guy named Mike but he just glanced my way so maybe not. I probably need to be more careful on Sundays.)

The council group met on a Saturday to plan for the coming year. They prayed, they talked, they laughed and they ATE! I was able to scamper in and out when they were not looking and grabbed a few morsels. They even included a little guy named Thomas in the activities – how cool is that! These grown ups embraced a little boy at a grown up meeting - that is called love in my book! What a family this church is!

Other things I have noticed since I returned: This group called Stewardship committee keeps meeting to talk about ideas; projects and how they plan on making it all come together. They seem to laugh a whole bunch so it must be fun. One piece of advice for them: maybe they should have snacks when they meet that would make things even happier!

So, the Christmas tree is down and I heard people are preparing for a thing called Mardi Gras – not sure if I remember that from before. However, someone mentioned parades and a King Cake so what is not to love!? Apparently you eat a lot on a day called Fat Tuesday and I am all about that!! Afterwards, you begin a Lenten Journey through Easter. I even heard some ladies talk about Sunday School!

It is good to be back – maybe I was even missed a little? I am staying out of sight from the two guys in the office for now. I do sneak into the kitchen when they leave in case they left something out that might be tasty. Don't worry...I will be quiet as a mouse!

Until next month...

OH! If you want to send info about happy stuff in the church, your family, school, work, email me: churchmouseharold@gmail.com I am back and I may as well make myself useful!

Men's Group Monthly Recap

The monthly Men's Breakfast was held on January 6, beginning at 8am. Attendees included Pastor Mueller, Andy Veren, Bruce Peterson, Tony and Thomas Stinnett, Jerry Driskell, Jeff Smolik and Dave Kummer.

Pastor Rich led devotions with an in depth discussion of the meaning and history of Epiphany (January 6th). He included Luther's insights using Luther's, The Christmas Book.

We also discussed the contribution that the group has made to the Compass for Life youth group and plans to attend their next graduation, in March.

At the conclusion, many members remained to assist in removing and storing decorations for the sanctuary.

These opportunities for meditation during our Lenten Journey this year will begin at 7:00 pm in the Sanctuary. They will be preceded by our Soup, Sandwich and Study beginning at 5:30 pm in the Fellowship Hall. Plan now to be a part of this meaningful journey to the Cross and Empty Tomb of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.

Overview

This series explores various kinds of lament found in scripture. Each week we will consider what it means to sit with our grief rather than try to push it aside. We will discover that many faithful believers have wrestled with grief, sorrow, and questions for God about why the innocent suffer. This series understands lament as one of the more faithful things we can do. When we approach God with honesty and humility, and we admit that some things are too big for our hearts to bear, we will find there not a disapproving God but one who weeps with us. We will find a God who can take our grief and disappointment and transform them into holy joy and renewed hope. We will learn, ultimately, that Jesus’ death on the cross—the place to which the season of Lent leads us—is the reason we never mourn as those without hope. — Sundays and Seasons

Reminders

HOLY TRINITY GOES LIVE! Our Sunday morning Service of Holy Communion is now being live-streamed and recorded each week at 10:00a on our Holy Trinity Facebook Page. If you are not able to be present in person, you are invited to join us on the internet. We also continue to provide a copy of the sermon text and the bulletin with music links via email. Many thanks to those who have volunteered to operate the camera on Sunday mornings. Volunteers are always needed. If interested in helping out in this way, please contact Linda Veren.

Donating Altar Flowers: Please keep in mind that your normal offering contributions do not pay for altar flowers. If you would like to donate a particular Sunday's flowers, the cost is $35.00. Simply use the sign-up sheet on the corkboard located in the narthex, and as the Sunday approaches place your donation in the offering plate. Make checks payable to Holy Trinity, noting "Altar Flowers" on the check. Please note there are no flowers at the altar during Lent.

Current vs. Building Fund Reminder: Specify how you want your offering split between the Current Fund and the Building Fund. If you do not specify on your envelope, it will by default go to the Current Fund. Anonymous cash (without an envelope specification) will all go towards the Current Fund. Checks without an envelope or notation on the check will by default go 100% towards the Current Fund. If you wonder about the percentage split that best services both funds, try directing 65% towards the Current Fund and 35% towards the Building Fund. Ongoing mission activities and Synod/ELCA funding is sourced from the Current Fund.
